A DISGRACE TO TONOPAH.

Several times during the past year, the Bonanza has called the attention of the people of Tonopah to the disgraceful conditions existing at the city cemetery, where the fence has been destroyed and the place at time resembles a haven for stray live stock. Yesterday the following communication was received at this office expressing the writer's ideas on the subject:

Editor Bonanza, Tonopah, Nevada.

"Dear Sir:—A few days ago you had an editorial in your paper in regard to the condition of our cemetery. It seems the people of Tonopah do not realize how bad the last resting place of our lost ones looks to strangers, and it is a disgrace to have relatives of the dead come to this city and find such conditions existing.

"The fence around the graveyard is in such a dilapidated condition that burros, cattle, and in fact numerous breeds of stray animals roam at will through the place that should at least be kept sacred, in memory of those who have departed this life. The graves are trampled down and headstones often dismantled and half the time it is hard to tell who is buried in some of the graves. Should this condition continue for another year, there will be no means to even determine if a burial ground ever existed in that locality.

"A number of relatives of the deceased have attempted to raise plants and decorate the graves, but everytime anything along this line was started, the burros would be on hand and indulge in a midnight feast of whatever greenery that had been left there.

"If you can spare space in your paper to acquaint the people with the true facts of the matter and also call the attention of those who are empowered to act, they might at least erect a fence around the cemetery that would keep the animals from trampling the graves and allow those who are so inclined to decorate the place.

Yours sincerely,

"SUBSCRIBER."

FORMER TONOPAH CHAUFFEUR HURT IN AN ACCIDENT

(By Associated Press.)

SAN FRANCISCO, May 4.—Eight persons were injured more or less seriously in an automobile accident early today on Sloat boulevard, near the ocean beach. The injured:

A. Becker, lacerated scalp and contusions of the body; serious.

Billy Lyon, fractured vertebrae in neck, possibly injury to spinal column; serious.

Charles Miller, bruised and abrasions; serious.

L. C. Percival, chauffeur, bruises and contusions, possibly internal injuries; serious.

George Sternberg, contusions of body; not serious.

Former State Senator J. M. Plunkett, bruises on body and head; not serious.

Miss Mildred Forbes, abrasions and contusions; not serious.

Miss Patricia Collins, contusions of head and body; not serious.

The machine, a large touring car, driven by L. C. Percival, was going at a good rate of speed as the party was on the way home from a night passed at The Breakers, a resort on the shores of the Pacific, some distance below the Cliff House, when, in attempting to make a sharp turn, one of the wheels stuck in the soft sand, turned turtle, and the occupants were thrown out, several being pinned under the car.

Lloyd C. Percival, who was driving the machine, is well known in Tonopah, having been connected with the Simplex Auto livery here for several years. He left here about four months ago with his brother Ray, and since that time has been engaged in San Francisco following his trade.
